It is of common knowledge that the express companies have been imposing extortionate rates upon their patrons and in those rates practicing unfair discrimination. On top of this has come proof of the fact that they have been charging above the rates they have fixed for their services. This state of affairs has been brought to light by an investigation of the express companies which is being made by the Interstate Commerce Commission. An agent of the commission discovered that in one month there were 3,000 cases of overcharging by a single company, the excess over the card rates being $67,000. In answer to this testimony the attorney of the company explained that the overcharges were due to mistakes on the part of the employees, and that all but 20 per cent of them had been refunded. This means that the overcharged patrons who did not complain of the extortion and demand restitution were cheated out of more than $13,000. It is a poor defense for corporations that return such enormous profits to their stockholders as the express companies have paid to admit that they have incompetent employees, and it is notorious that no corporations in America so underpay their employees as the express companies. The more light that is thrown on the inner workings of the express companies the greater appears the necessity of placing them under government regulation and providing healthy competition in their business by the establishment of the parcels post under the proper distribution regulations that will build up a few communities at the expense of the rest of the country.—Lexington Leader.

The Washington News, owned and edited by Colonel R. R. Perry and daughter, Miss Goldie Perry, has been sold to Lucien Beckner and C.C. Robbins. The News will be independent in politics and will be edited by Mr. Beckner. Mr. Robbins will act as business manager.

The sympathy of the entire nation goes out to the people of Houston, Texas, in this hour of great disaster. That they will be equal, however, to the emergency and come forth more glorious than ever we have no doubt.

Doctors to Fight Slim Waist

The wasp-like waist is returning. News from Paris says that soon the gowns imported to this country will have small waists and that women again will be lacing tight and squeezing into dresses with waists that ordinarily only girls of 16 could wear. The waist line that for a time was lost is being now marked distinctly by the creators of fashion. With that announcement, however, doctors are planning a campaign and the prospects are that a war between the dictators of fashion and the physicians will be waged. Doctors are again the small waist. The makers of fashions say that the slim waist adds to the grace and effectiveness of the dress and they are determined to swing it back into popular favor.

Keeps Plans of Kentucky Roads Secret.

Gen. T. Coleman Du Pont, although now a Delawarean through and through, has a warm spot for Kentucky, his native State. He demonstrated this when he confirmed a statement that he intends to build good roads in Kentucky and present them to the State. This follows his plans to construct a $2,000,000 boulevard the length of Delaware, 103 miles, as a gift to that Commonwealth. The boulevard will probably be virtually completed this year. When asked what portion of Kentucky he proposed to build modern roads, he pointed a finger of warning. "If I were to announce just where in Kentucky I have planned to construct roads," he said, "the mails would not hold all the letters I would receive on the subject. Builders without number would write and many others would come and see me. I cannot make my plans public now, but I soon may be able to do so." He is earnest in the matter. The General referred to the fact that he has large mining interests in Kentucky. The millionaire president of the Du Pont Powder Company has a high regard for the State of his birth.

Brighter Days in Store for Tobacco Growers.

The Cincinnati (Ohio) Enquirer has the following account of the tobacco situation which we give for what it may be worth, hoping that it may mean competition in the tobacco trade: "T. F. Ryan is now crowded in Wall street, with being in complete control of the American Tobacco company, confirming predictions made when he entered the directorate of the corporation that it would be only a question of time when he would dominate it. James Buchanan Duke for twenty-two years the leading spirit in the great combination, which he practically created, is retiring from the presidency of the corporation to be succeeded by Percival S. Hill, a vice president of the company. These changes are said to be due to the personal influence of Mr. Ryan, who has been appointing men of his own choosing in the American Tobacco company to displace officials who had been selected by Mr. Duke from his friends in his native State of North Carolina. In leaving the American Tobacco company, limited, the business of which lies principally in China, Australia, Canada and South America, The British-American's contracts with the old American Tobacco company have been abrogated, and it is believed it will now start on a career of competition with the American, in which event a great fight may be expected between Mr. Ryan and Mr. Duke for the control of the tobacco business of this country."

Rev. Logan Returns Home.

Rev. J. V. Logan accompanied by Mrs. Logan, arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon from Louisville, where Mr. Logan went to receive treatment for his injured eye. Mr. Logan stopped over at Richmond Monday and was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Thompson Burman for the day and night. Mr. Logan's friends will be glad to hear that he is gradually improving. He was down town for the first time yesterday morning for a few minutes. Mr. Logan's physician states that it will be several weeks before he will be able to resume his preaching. However, the officers of the church will make every effort to fill in these intervening Sundays with an out-of-town minister.—Middleboro News-Record.

Judge Hughes Will Probably Announce for Congress.

The Harrodsburg Herald says: Judge John W. Hughes has returned from Frankfort where he appeared before the Joint Redistricting Committee and made a strong argument against putting the counties of Clark, Powell, Estill, Lee and Wolfe into the Eighth Congressional District. Several other arguments were made for and against putting them in our district. After the arguments the committee decided to put the above mentioned counties, or most of them, in the Seventh District and take Rockcastle from us and put it into the Eleventh and added to this district Casey and Adams counties. Judge Hughes says he is well pleased with that arrangement, and as soon as it is finally decided upon by the legislature he will let his friends in the district hear from him in the coming Congressional race. We think the Judge will certainly be in the race, and a winner.

Increase For Teachers.

The House, by the vote of 61 to 4, passed the bill increasing the maximum salaries allowed teachers in rural schools from $60 to $75 a month, and that of County School Superintendents to $2,500 a year except in counties wherein the assessed valuation of property does not exceed $1,000,000, leaving it to the Fiscal Court in any county to determine the matter. The measure does away with "third-class certificates" for teachers, the Legislature taking the stand that unless a person can make a general average better than 65 per cent, he should not be permitted to teach. Another feature of the bill is that provision enabling a County Board of Education to do away with the practice of paying teachers on a per capita basis, based on the number of children of school age in a district, irrespective of the average number in daily attendance upon the school. Before abolishing the practice, however, the county board must first secure the concurrence of the State Board of Education. As originally drawn, the measure made instruction in agriculture compulsory in the schools, but that section was killed.

The supposition is that House Bill 74 will be reported during the present week. This is the bill that has been so vigorously prosecuted by Representative L. B. Herrington, of this city. Following a session of the probate committee, Chairman Wilson said:
